Berkey & Gay Must Comply With the Ordinance.

NO FIRE ESCAPES PROVIDED

On One of Their Buildings-Holiday Saioon Regulations Defined-Capt. Fitzpatrick on the Carpet.

Marshal Lemoin reported to the board of police and fire commi yesterday that the Berkey & Gay buildmg, formerly occupied by the Royal Furniture company, was unsafe as re-gards the modes of egress should a fire break out while the men are at work. He said the building is seven stories high, and the only way of getting down is by way of a stairway and an elevator. He had urged the placing of fire escapes on the building, but Mr. Gay had neglected to do so. The marshal had threatened to begin action in the courts to enforce the ordinance, and as yet no action had been taken by the company. Mr. Gay was out of the city and when he returned action would be instituted. Superintendent Eastman reported several burglaries and the important several burglaries and the important arrests of the past week. Commissioner Loettgert said several saloon men had asked him about closing on Christmas and New Year, as those holidays will come on Sunday. The superintendent said the statute governed the matter. When a legal holiday falls on Sunday the following Monday must be considered the legal holiday. Those saloonkeepers who keep open on Monday after Christmas and New Years will do so at their own risk. Bead the Riet Act.

The commissioners asked the reporters to retire while the president "read the riot act" to Captain Fitzpatrick of engine house No. 8. Four or five weeks ago Michael Maher was suspended for insubordination. He made serious charges against Captain Fitzpatrick and other firemen in engine house No. 8, charging drunkenness and poor discipline. While Mr. Fitzpatrick was closeted with the board he was told that after five weeks of investigation the board was unable to find the charges true, but it was satisfied that he was not exacting enough with the weeks ago Michael Maher was suspended for insubordination. He made serious charges against Captain Fitzpatrick and other firemen in engine house No. 3, charging drunkenness and poor discipline. While Mr. Fitzpatrick was closeted with the board he was told that after five weeks of investigation the board was unable to find the charges true, but it was satisfied that he was not exacting enough with the men under him. He was warned to preserve better discipline in future.

Mercantile and Bank Line,

Superintendent Bettinghouse recommended that a new alarm line be established, to be known as the banking and mercantile circuit, to be used by those bankers and merchants who waned to avail themselves of better police protection. The cost of maintemance to be paid by the parties using the line. It was referred to the commuttee on finance.

Mr. Flannigan's home is in Burlington. A short time ago he was down with rheumatiam. "In the winger of IRA J. FLANNIGAN. 1890-91," he says, "rheumatism came out on my hands so that they were a perfect sight. They were so swollen as to be almost useless. A druggist painted them for me with iodine, and then I went to one of the leading-physicians in town, who gave me some medicine, but it did not reduce the awelling or give me any relief.

sician has said: "Paine's celery pound is generally considered a cer-tain specific for the cure of rheuma-tism, and so much better results are obtained from it than from all the usual remedies that it has become a regular prescription among the most eminent practitioners. I prescribe it regularly and believe that every rheu-matic victim should use it.

Mr. J. P. Bisize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of the state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review.

Mr. Blaine had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaine sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamfever. Mr. Biane sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberiain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful, and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine, and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blane regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, 58 Monroe street.
